A Message from the President

Alberta is seeing a rapidly shifting landscape of the alcohol retail industry. The last few years have presented unprecedented challenges. From inflationary pressures to increasing regulatory scrutiny and evolving consumer behaviors, our industry has been tested in ways few could have predicted.

Yet, despite these challenges, we have proven resilient.

Still, the pressures are far from over.

We are witnessing a critical turning point. Now more than ever, we must stay engaged, informed, and united. Our ability to adapt while preserving the core values of responsible retailing, customer service, and community stewardship is what will define our future. At ALSA we are working hard every day to advocate for your interests, defend fair market access, and help you navigate the ever-changing regulatory terrain.

Together, we can meet these challenges head-on. Your continued participation in this conference strengthens our collective voice and ensures we are not only heard but respected by policymakers, partners, and the public.

Thank you for your unwavering commitment to this industry. We remain stronger because of your support.

See you soon,

Ivonne Martinez
President
Alberta Liquor Store Association

About the Alberta Liquor Industry Conference (ALIC)

The Alberta Liquor Store Association in partnership with the Alberta Gaming, Liquor & Cannabis and Connect Logistics will be hosting the 2026 annual Alberta Liquor Industry Conference (ALIC) on October 8 at the Marriott Hotel in Calgary.

This event is an excellent opportunity for all sectors of the Alberta Liquor Industry to come together, see each other again and to discuss topics of interest, network and learn about the new trend and products in Alberta.

The 2026 event will celebrate Alberta's liquor industry's resilience and adaptability as we look to the future.

Our promise is to ensure responsible gaming and liquor choices that delivers economic and social benefit to Albertans. Driven by a bold and balanced approach, AGLC is a leader in creating progressive gaming and liquor experiences trusted and enjoyed by Albertans. AGLC is committed to operating according to the following values:

INTEGRITY: We play by the rules, do the right thing and do what we say we'll do.

RESPECT: We create an environment where each individual is valued and heard, and celebrate the diversity that makes us stronger.

COLLABORATION: Together we are better. Working as a team and with our partners we achieve extraordinary results.

INNOVATION: We imagine the possibilities. We challenge ourselves to look beyond what is to what can be.

EXCELLENCE: We are all leaders. We work with passion, pride and purpose and own our part in the success of the team.

ALSA was formed in 1994 following privatization of Alberta's liquor industry. It has grown to represent more than 570 independent retail liquor stores from every community across Alberta. Our diverse membership includes small, medium and larger-sized businesses, some of which have multiple locations. A unified voice in their dealings with government, the public, the media, and others in the liquor industry; and a forum for the exchange of ideas, trends and leading practices that promote customer service, industry well-being, and an industry code of ethics.

Partner Sponsor

Connect is solely responsible for the warehousing and distribution of spirits, wines, coolers, and import beer in Alberta. Connect Logistics Services does not buy or take possession of any product. Instead, liquor suppliers and agents continue to own their product until it is sold. Alberta's unique liquor model has generated dramatic growth and led to the construction of a new liquor distribution centre. The facility is approximately 543,000 square-feet, with 473,000 square-feet of warehouse space and will serve as the main distribution centre for spirits, wine and imported beer.
